Rookie Release

1. Contestant must declare himself/herself a rookie at the time of initial application.
2. To be considered a rookie you must not have held a card (been a member) in any event with any other rodeo association (example: PRCA, Wyoming Rodeo Assoc. etc.), regardless of age. This includes any previous membership with the CPRA.
  - The only exceptions are: Junior rodeo, Little Britches and High School Rodeo.
3. Rookies will be marked in season standings and on their CPRA membership card with an "R" before their membership number.
4. Year-end monies and awards will vary per event.
5. Any questions concerns and/or grievances must be brought to their CPRA Board of Directors by August 1, of current membership year.
6. All rookie applicants are subject to review by the Board of Directors at any time.

If, after reading the above rules, you feel you qualify for rookie status, please sign and return this form to the State Office. Your rookie cards will be sent upon receipt of this release.

- Please read the rulebook provided to you in this mailing.
- You are responsible for all applicable rules.
- Your first year with the CPRA is your rookie year.
